- 1.1 The following SERVICE REGULATION shall come into effect from 1st of July, 2012 and shall be called THE B. P. PODDAR INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGY SERVICE REGULATIONS 2012 (amended)" in supersession of Service Regulations 2004 and all other Service Regulations published by B. P. Poddar Foundation for Education prior to the date of its implementation.
- 1.2 These regulations shall apply to all regular employees of B.P. Poddar Institute of Management & Technology (hereinafter called as "the Institute")– Teaching Faculty and Supporting Staff, e.g. Technical, Non-teaching and Ministerial Staff of the Institute.
- 1.3 Nothing in these Regulations shall operate to deprive any person of any right or privilege to which he/she shall be entitled by / under any law, or by terms of any contract / agreement subsisting between such person and the Management of the Institute.
- 1.4 Provisions under the Service Regulations shall be implemented by "Competent Authority", who shall be vested with power delegated by Management for the same.
- 1.5 The Authority to whom such power is so delegated, may exercise such power only in respect of those employees who are placed under his/her administrative control for the purpose.

2.0 General :

- 2.1 Every employee of the Institute shall comply with and abide by the regulation governing his/her service under the Institute and also with the terms and conditions of his/her appointment with the Institute shall comply with and obey all valid orders and instructions which may, from time to time, be conveyed /issued to him/her by any person so authorized or by any person under whose superintendence, jurisdiction or control, he/she may, at any time, be placed.
- 2.2 He /She shall be expected to come to the place of work properly dressed and display IDENTITY CARD prominently. He /She shall work during and within the usual working hours, to the best of his/her ability.
- 2.3 Every employee shall maintain the strictest secrecy in regard to the affairs of the Institute and its business. No employee shall directly or indirectly disclose to the outside party any information regarding process, technology or information furnished by any client. He /She shall not share with outside agency any design developed by /at the Institute.
- 2.4 Every employee shall, ordinarily, devote full time to the service of the Institute except as otherwise decided by the Management in particular cases. No employee shall either on his/her own account or on account of any other person or persons, be in any way either directly or indirectly engaged, concerned or interested in any other business or occupation of any kind. He /She shall devote himself/herself exclusively to the business and affairs of the Institute and strive to promote the Institute's interest.
- 2.5 Except with express permission of the Management, no employee shall carry on business either in his/her name or as a 'benamdar' in the name of any one. He/ She shall not accept any gift or present from any party having business relations with the Institute or its client.

- 2.6 No employee shall, ordinarily, maintain any interest of any kind in any firm that supplies materials to the Institute or to its clients. If, however, there, be any such relationship, he/she must disclose the same to the Management in advance.
- 2.7 Any patent(s) or invention(s), of which an employee has been an owner on the date of his/her appointment, shall continue to remain his/her exclusive property, but no royalty or other remuneration shall be payable to him/her for the use thereof by the Institute unless a formal agreement has been entered into by the Institute fixing the royalty or remuneration payable. If, at any time thereafter during the continuance of his/her employment with the Institute or during three calendar months immediately succeeding discontinuation of employment, the Employee makes any invention, whether patented or otherwise, relating to or suitable of being used in connection with the business of the Institute, the employee shall forthwith communicate the same to the Institute, and the Institute shall be entitled to use the same in connection with its business if so desired, without payment of any royalty or other remuneration. The Institute may, however, agree to pay in the event of any such invention being patented by the employee beyond this period of three months provided that the said employee executes a license in favour of the Institute in such a form as the Institute may desire. The License should be registered and recorded against the said patent. The right of the use of such invention shall continue even after the cessation of employee's service with the Institute.
- 2.8 An employee may be called upon or required to take upon himself/herself the charge of any money, stores or other property of the Institute, or if any such money, stores or property shall, at any time, be entrusted to him/her or come into his / her possession or be under his/her charge, he/she shall truly and faithfully account for and pay over/deliver the same to such person (s) as the Competent Authority may require/direct.
- 2.9 No employee shall do anything that might go against the reputation, integrity or interest of the Institute. The employee shall be expected to act in an unbiased manner in recommending the Institute's clients in respect of awards of contract and shall be expected to obtain the concurrence of the Head of the Department or of any other person so authorized.
- 2.10. A faculty should discharge his/her professional responsibilities according to the existing rules and adhere to procedures and methods consistent with his/her profession.
- 2.11 He/She should refrain from undertaking any other employment and commitment including private tuitions and coaching classes which are likely to interfere with his/her professional responsibilities. However he/she may be allowed to serve for assignment of different Universities at the discretion of the management.
- 2.12 He/She should co-operate in the formulation of policies of the Institution by accepting various offices and discharge responsibilities which such offices may demand.
- 2.13 He/She should co-operate with the authorities for the betterment of the Institution keeping in view the interest and in conformity with dignity of the profession.
- 2.14 He/She should honour and adhere to the conditions of contract.
- 2.15 He/She should give due notice and expect due notice before change of position is made. He/she should refrain from changing position during an on-going semester.
- 2.16 If, at any time, an employee is found to be guilty of dishonesty, disobedience, insubordination or negligence of duty or any other offence amounting to gross misconduct, he/she shall be liable for strict disciplinary action including summary dismissal from service as per CDA Rules.

- 2.17 In all matters not covered by these regulations or specific agreements, the decision of the management shall be final and binding on every employee.

3.0 Appointment :

3.1 Regular Appointment

All letters of appointment issued by the competent authority or any authorized person on his behalf will be against substantive and / or regular vacancy and will entail a period of probation.

3.2 Appointment on Contractual Basis (Full Time)

The Institute may in its sole discretion resort to ad-hoc appointment to tide over any emergency / temporary requirements for a specific period (one year maximum) which may be further extended at the discretion of management. The terms of such appointment shall be included in the appointment letters. The period of service under ad-hoc appointment shall not be counted as part of probation period, either in part or in full, should such an occasion arise in future. Such appointments would have no bearing upon the Service Rules governing regular employees except general conditions and Leave Rules (Casual leave & Commuted leave only).

3.3 Appointment of Part-time and Visiting faculty

The Institute may, in its sole discretion, resort to appointment of Part-time and visiting faculty on need basis from time to time. Such appointments will be for specific periods (usually spanning one semester) covering classes & examinations in a Semester. While payments to visiting faculty would /be based on prescribed rates, part-time appointments will be on lump-sum basis per month. The tenure of such appointment will not cover non-teaching periods. The terms of such appointment shall be included in the appointment letters. Such appointments would have no bearing upon the service rules governing regular employees.

5.0 Pay & Increments:

5.1 An employee shall draw the pay & allowances attached to a post to which he/she has been appointed with effect from the date he/she assumes the duties of that post and shall cease to draw the same when he/she ceases to discharge those duties.

5.2 On first appointment to a post, pay will be fixed at the minimum of the time scale applicable to that post.

5.3 Higher initial pay/additional increments may be granted as per AICTE norms or other -wise deemed necessary to an employee on his/her appointment based on the recommendation of the duly constituted selection committee and approval of the competent authority. In case it becomes necessary to protect pay, additional pay may be considered without jeopardizing seniority of existing employees. Such additional pay will be treated as personal pay which will not have any bearing on any allowance / perquisite.

5.4 An annual increment shall normally be drawn on completion of 1(one) year of service from the date of joining the post subject to satisfactory performance appraisal and every such year thereafter (unless withheld as a measure of punishment in a disciplinary action for misconduct or otherwise). An increment will be effective from the 1st day of July every year as per rule under Govt. of West Bengal.

5.5 When an Efficiency Bar (EB) has been prescribed in a time scale, the increment next above shall only be allowed on the specific sanction order of the appointing authority/competent authority on the recommendation of the HOD or the controlling officer of the employee and on the basis of such appraisal process as may be prescribed.

- 5.6 The provisions for earning an increment in the time scale of pay shall be as under:
- (a) All duty in a post on a pay scale counts for increment in that pay scale provided.
 - (b) Officiating or temporary service in another post will count for increment in the time scale applicable to the post.
 - (c) All duty authorized leave other than extraordinary leave will count towards increment in the time-scale applicable to a post which the person concerned holds.
 - (d) Save in exceptional circumstances and under specific sanction of competent authority, no employee of the Institute on a time scale of pay will be allowed a premature increment / advance increment.
 - (e) If an employee carries on, in addition to his own duties, the duties of a post belonging to a category higher than that of which he holds in a substantive appointment, he/she will draw an additional pay of 20% of the minimum of the scale of pay (Basic Pay) of that post, provided that he/she carries on such duties for a period not less than a month. This additional pay shall not be counted for any other purpose (P.F., D.A. , HRA, Medical allowance etc.)
 - (f) Additional increments, as per AICTE norms, may be granted to an employee on acquiring prescribed qualification (on submission of the certificate / mark sheet), subject to other conditions in force. Such increments, however, will be effect once a year, normally 1st of July.
 - (g) An employee discharging the duties of another employee belonging to the same classification will not be entitled to any additional remuneration for such duties.

6.0 Allowances

Allowances will be admissible to employees as per AICTE guidelines/policies of the Institute in force from time to time. Provident Fund, Gratuity, Group Insurance etc. (Medical/Health/Personnel Accident as may be applicable) will also be provided for as per AICTE guidelines.

7.0 Performance Appraisal

An open, transparent and objective performance appraisal system as proposed by AICTE shall be practiced.

Compensation package, performance and accountability are inter-related, and one cannot be had without the other. Performance appraisal and accountability shall be an integral part of the pay revision package.

8.0 TEACHING DAYS

The number of teaching days should not be less than 180 working days; in a year i.e. there should be a minimum of 36 weeks of actual teaching in a 5-day week. 10.6 CODE OF PROFESSIONAL ETHICS FOR FACULTY

Teachers and their responsibilities:

Whoever adopts teaching as a profession assumes the obligation to conduct himself / herself in accordance with the ideal of the profession. A teacher is constantly under the scrutiny of his students and the society at large. Therefore, every teacher should see that there is no incompatibility between his/her precepts and practice. The national ideals of education which have already been set forth and which he/she should seek to inculcate among students must be his/her own ideals. The profession further requires that the teachers should be calm, patient and communicative by temperament and amiable in disposition. Teachers should:

- 1) Adhere to a responsible pattern of conduct and demeanour expected of them.
- 2) Manage their private affairs in a manner consistent with the dignity of the profession.
- 3) Seek to make professional growth continuous through study and research.
- 4) Express free and frank opinion by participation at professional meetings, seminars, conferences etc. towards the contribution of knowledge.
- 5) Maintain active membership of professional organizations and strive to improve education and profession through them.
- 6) Perform their duties in the form of teaching, tutorial, practical, seminar and research work conscientiously and with dedication.
- 7) Co-operate and assist in carrying out functions relating to educational responsibilities of the College such as assisting in appraising applications for admission if required, advising and counselling of students as well as assisting the conduct of examinations, including supervision, invigilation and evaluation.
- 8) Co-operate and assist in all initiatives towards prevention and eradication of ragging in and outside campus as per guidelines of AICTE.
- 9) Participate in extension, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities including community service.

Recruitment Policy

Before commencement of each Semester, well in advance the Head of the Departments prepare the Departmental load distribution of the faculty members and identify the requirement of new faculty and submit the requisition to the Principal. Principal after scrutinising the requisition and considering the required SFR as per AICTE norms prepares the final faculty requirement status and finalises the list in consultation with higher authority.

For recruitment in regular post, advertisements are published in the leading Newspaper. Eligible candidates are required to fill up an on line form in our Institutional website giving information regarding personal details, academic qualification, teaching research and other experience. From the summary, eligible candidates are shortlisted based on AICTE norms and the shortlisted candidates are called to appear for an interview before a selection committee consisting of Chairman (an external expert, subject experts and Principal (convener)). Based on the candidate's bio-data and interview the Selection Committee recommends candidates for recruitment and the recommendation is placed before the authority for approval.

In case of urgent requirement, selected members are given contractual/ad-hoc where recommendation for selection is done by an internal selection committee consisting of Principal as chairperson and HODs/senior faculty members.

For recruitment of Technical and Administrative staff, technical skill test and interview is done by internal committee consisting of HOD/Registrar as Chairman and faculty members as experts and recommendation is placed before authority for approval.

Promotional Policy

As per AICTE norm, every year after completion of the academic session, every faculty member is required to submit the details of the Academic, Administrative and R & D activity done by him/her in the previous academic year in the specified format as prescribed by AICTE. The format has following three parts:

Part – I: Teaching, Learning and Evaluation related activities.

Part – II: Co-curricular, Administrative and Professional development Activities.

Part – III: R & D, Training (FDP) and Conference related activities.

These details are evaluated as per the distribution of marks given by AICTE by two different persons separately.

1. Head of the Department
2. Centrally by Principal/Dean or their representative.

The average of the two evaluations is the API score of the faculty member.

The faculty members who are eligible for career advancement as per AICTE guideline are shortlisted. The cumulative API score of last four/five years is prepared for the shortlisted candidates for Career Advancement Scheme (CAS).

For promotions of Assistant Professor from stage 1 to stage 2, and from stage 2 to stage 3, this cumulative API score is verified with valid documents by a Screening Committee appointed by the Institute for this purpose with Eminent Academicians as External member and Principal/Dean/Senior Faculty member of the Institute. Candidates scoring equal or more than the minimum as prescribed by AICTE, promotion is recommended by this Committee under CAS. For promotion from Assistant Professor stage 3 to Associate Professor stage 4 or Associate Professor to Professor stage 5, candidates need to appear before a Selection Committee interview after completion of the AICTE specified years of service. The Selection Committee consists of an External Eminent Academicians as Chairman, External Subject Experts and Principal (convener). The Selection Committee considers contributions to Research, Domain Knowledge and Teaching Practice in addition to interview performances in accordance with AICTE norms for final recommendation of promotion. The recommended list of faculty members is placed before the Institute authority for approval.
